

Introductory Professional Development Track for Nebraska Teachers

In Partnership with the Nebraska Department of Education

CodeHS is partnering with the Nebraska DoE to host multiple FREE computer science PD opportunities to help prepare computer science and technology teachers for the 2025-2026 school year. Register online at codehs.com/nebraskapd to save your spot today!

Getting Started:

- Getting Started Teaching Computer Science (for MS/HS Teachers)
- Teaching Nebraska Introduction to Computer Science and Technology with CodeHS
- Transitioning to the Computer Science Classroom
- Teaching Python Basics with Tracy Course

Developing Competence:

- Introduction to Python/Java/JavaScript Bootcamps
- Middle School CS Bootcamp
- Cybersecurity Bootcamp
- Artificial Intelligence Bootcamp

Furthering the Journey:

- Project-Based Learning with CodeHS
- Collaboration in Computer Science
- Blended Learning in Computer Science

Valuable Extensions:

- Incorporating Coding into Math Classes with CodeHS
- Incorporating Coding into Science Classes with CodeHS

Nebraska teachers who complete a CodeHS PD will receive:

- $250, $500, or $750 Stipend for Completion*
- 60-Day CodeHS Pro License Trial
- Certificate of Participation with PL Hours
- Annual CodeHS PD Membership including online courses, on-demand library, and live events

Stipends vary based on the type of PD event.*

Register online at codehs.com/nebraskapd
to save your spot today!

@codehs | hello@codehs.com | codehs.com